Accessibility and Special Requirements :

Refreshments and biscuits are included. If you have any allergies or special requirements please ensure you confirm this to us when booking your place.

Cutting and assembling glass require some dexterity as you will need to apply a little bit of pressure on the glass whilst using the appropriate tools. Please bear this in mind if you suffer from arthritis or a previous hand/arm injury. If in doubt, please contact Claudia at hello@glassbyclaudia.com.

PLEASE NOTE : We offer toilet facilities. However, the studio is part of a converted farm building and unfortunately, access to the toilet within our studio is via a set of 5 steps and therefore unsuitable for wheelchair access. We are very sorry about this and thank you for your understanding.
